

TRANSFER GUIDE FOR OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Major Offered At:

CORVALLIS

ECAMPUS

LA GRANDE

Columbia Gorge Community College

Agricultural Sciences

The Agricultural Sciences major gives you the freedom to design your own degree. As part of the degree program, students can choose from various agricultural-based credits and electives.

You can go broad with exposure to all areas of agriculture, go deep with two or more emphasis areas — or do a combination of both. If you're interested in becoming a teacher, an Agricultural Sciences degree is an ideal first step.

Your Bachelor's Degree (BS) in Agricultural Sciences

- A minimum of 180 credits are required for graduation; 60 must be upper division (300 and 400-level courses).
- A maximum of 135 transfer credits may be applied toward a bachelor's degree at OSU.
- Only courses with letter prefixes and numbers above 100 are accepted.

Important Notes & Resources

- See a sample degree plan by searching "Agricultural Sciences" in the OSU Catalog at catalog.oregonstate.edu. Or find a sample degree plan on the Agricultural Sciences Degree Fact Sheet agsci.oregonstate.edu/degree-fact-sheet/agricultural-sciences
- This degree has no formal options or specializations but is the most flexible and customizable degree program in the College of Agricultural Sciences. Students can choose any course offered within the college to create a customized educational plan to meet their needs.
- Level 100/200 and lower division Baccalaureate Core are priority courses to complete before transferring to OSU.
- For Agricultural Sciences students, the best time to transfer is fall term. Talk with an OSU advisor about your specific timeline.
- It is important to speak with an Agricultural Science Advisor early on, and often, to ensure correct course selection and sequencing. Visit the Department of Agricultural Education and Agricultural Sciences website for advisor contact information for the Corvallis campus/Ecampus. For information about the Agricultural Sciences Program offered on the Eastern Oregon University Campus contact Francine Czerniawski.
