Fisheries, Wildlife, and Conservation Sciences Undergraduate Major (BS, HBS)

The Bachelor of Science degree in Fisheries, Wildlife, and Conservation Sciences prepares students for careers related to the conservation of fish and wildlife and their habitats. Our curriculum helps students to think critically and evaluate problems using basic and applied science. The curriculum is composed of core courses required of all students and an advanced science core where students select courses within specific academic areas (e.g., vertebrate biology and systematics, behavior and physiology, and habitats and ecosystems). Combining that coursework with internships, professional development courses, and a capstone course prepares graduates with this degree to begin professional careers.

Your Bachelor's Degree (BS) in the College of Agricultural Sciences

- A minimum of 180 credits are required for graduation; 60 must be upper division (300 and 400-level courses).
- A maximum of 135 transfer credits may be applied toward a bachelor's degree at OSU.
- Only courses with letter prefixes and numbers above 100 can be accepted.
- Options available. See "Important Notes".
- See the OSU Catalog for a list of courses required for your major and option: catalog.oregonstate.edu

Important Notes & Resources

Important Notes for the College and Major:

- Grade requirements: see [College Link] for more information.
- See a sample degree plan by searching "Fisheries, Wildlife, and Conservation Sciences" at admissions.oregonstate.edu/find-your-major
- [Classes] and some Core Education are priority courses to complete before transferring to OSU.
- The best time to transfer is Fall term, particularly due to the Biology and Chemistry series courses. Talk with an OSU advisor about your specific timeline.
- It is important to speak with your FWCS Advisor early on, and often, to ensure correct course selection and sequencing.

Resources and OSU Information:

- Students do not have to complete a transfer degree in order to transfer to OSU.
- If you've completed the Oregon AAOT or ASOT, all lower division Core Ed requirements are considered complete.
- If you've completed to CTM (Core Transfer Map) or an MTM (Major Transfer Map), all lower division Core Ed requirements are considered complete except Difference, Power and Oppression Foundations.
- Preparing to apply to OSU? See admissions info: transfer.oregonstate.edu/applying-oregon-state-university
