

Corvallis Farm Unit

Field Lab Fees 2016-2017

| Research Farm  | Service Fee/acre /year | Comments on acre charge  | Service Fee Includes  | Supply costs (Extra charges)  |
|---|-------------------------------|---|--|--|
| Hyslop and Schmitt Farms  | $879                         | Any part of an acre is charged at a one acre rate                         | Ground preparation, irrigation equipment, irrigation pump electricity, non-research weed control, mowing, herbicide application, fungicide/insecticide application, post-harvest field cleanup, cover-crop planting, rodent eradication, use of facility, buildings, implements, tractors, tools, and storage. Full-time mechanic available.   | Any supplies such as fuels, lubricants, fertilizers, research specific chemicals, herbicides, fungicides and insecticides. All equipment must be operated by trained and approved OSU or USDA personnel.   |
| Botany Plant Path   | $860                         | Any part of an acre is charged at a one acre rate                         | Ground preparation, irrigation, irrigation equipment, irrigation pump electricity, non-research work (weed control, mowing, herbicide application, fungicide/insecticide application), post-harvest field renovation after research inputs are removed, cover-crop planting, rodent eradication, use of facility, buildings, implements, tractors, tools and storage.  | Any supplies such as fuels, lubricants, fertilizers, chemicals, herbicides, fungicides and insecticides. All equipment must be operated by trained and approved OSU or USDA personnel.   |
| Vegetable Farm, East Farm, Lewis-Brown Farm and Woodhall Vineyard | $1,259                       | Acre fractions less than 0.5 acres will be charged at a half an acre rate | Ground preparation, irrigation, sprinkler irrigation equipment (if available), tractor applied pesticides and fertilizers for routine crop maintenance, plot mowing (except LBF), post harvest field renovation after research inputs are removed, cover crop planting on released plots, vertebrate pest control, use of facilities and equipment. Supplies for routine plot and crop maintenance such as fuels, lubricants, fertilizers, and pesticides are covered by the service fees. | Special needs supplies such as specialty fertilizers, trellis, drip irrigation, row covers, bird net, deer net, etc. are a project responsibility. Specialty inputs for certified organic plots at LBF such as compost, fertilizer, row cover, etc. are a project responsibility. Costs of maintaining organic certification through Oregon Tilth will be divided among organic plot users annually. All equipment must be operated by trained and approved OSU or USDA personnel. |
| East Farm with perennial crops with limited staff services        | $500                         | Acre fractions less than 0.5 acres will be charged at a half an acre rate | Rodent eradication, weed control around the perimeter of research area, use of irrigation equipment if available, building and equipment use.  | Fuels will be sold at cost.  |
|   |                               |   | Farm labor charges over and above what service fees include  | $32/hour for Farm Staff$12/hour for Student  |
|   |                               |   | Hyslop Crop Dryer  | $2.50/hr for small bin$5.00/hr for large bin   |
|   |                               |   | "Can" Fee at Botany Plant Pathology  | $75/quarter   |
|   |                               |   |  | Fee for storing potted or "canned" plants. The fee includes watering, ground mat for 2100 square feet of space in the "can" area.  |